THE LOCKE BAR WHISKEY IS HERE!

AFTER YEARS OF WAITING. PLANNING & TASTING, WE ARE PROUDLY SERVING OUR OWN WHISKEY BLEND

Blend, is triple-distilled and aged a minimum of three years. It is a supberb blend of 92% single grain & 8% single malt whiskeys matured in bourbon, virgin oak and sherry casks; which combine to produce an exquisite finish. The Whiskey is non-chilled filtered, has no added colour and is bottled at 40% alcohol by volume.

The Locke Irish Whiskey, Premium The Locke Whiskey is remarkably smooth, with lots of character and a distinctive nose. It is round and full-bodied on the palette. The taste hints at toasted oats, fresh yellow apple, warm cinnamon spice and dried vine fruits. The finish is rich, creamy and delicate, yet complex.

"In Ireland, you go to someone's house, and she asks you if you want a cup of tea. You say no, thank you, you're really just fine. She asks if you're sure. You say of course you're sure, really, you don't need a thing. Except they pronounce it ting. You don't need a ting. Well, she says then, I was going to get myself some anyway, so it would be no trouble. Ah, you say, well, if you were going to get yourself some, I wouldn't mind a spot of tea, at that, so long as it's no trouble and I can give you a hand in the kitchen. Then you go through the whole thing all over again until you both end up in the kitchen drinking tea and chatting.

In America, someone asks you if you want a cup of tea, you say no, and then you don't get any damned tea.

I liked the Irish way better."

THE STORY OF IRISH COFFEE

ate one night in the winter Lof 1943 a flight departed Foynes, County Limerick for Botwood, Newfoundland. After flying for several hours in bad weather conditions, the Captain made the decision to return to Foynes and await better conditions. A Morse code message was sent to the control tower at Foynes to inform them of their return. Staff were contacted to return to work and when the flight landed they were brought to the Airport Restaurant for food and drink to warm them.

When the Chef, Joe Sheridan was asked to prepare something warm for the passengers, he decided to put some good Irish Whiskey into their coffees. One of the passengers approached Joe and thanked him for the wonderful coffee. He asked Joe did he use Brazilian Coffee? Joe jokingly answered, "No that was Irish Coffee!!"

A few weeks later, Chef Sheridan knocked on Brendan O'Regan's office door. He showed Brendan this new drink in a stemmed glass and asked him "How about that for eye appeal". Brendan answered "Genius Chef" and so began Irish Coffee. Irish Coffee continued to be served at Foynes to all passengers and is still served to this day to all dignitaries arriving at Shannon Airport.

he Treaty Stone,

THE TREATY OF LIMERICK

The Treaty of Limerick was signed on 3 October 1691. It is believed that it was signed on a rock known as the Treaty Stone. The Treaty Stone is displayed on a pedestal in Limerick city.

The Treaty of Limerick had military and civil articles. The military articles were concerned with how the Jacobite forces would fare now that a truce had been called. The civil articles were about protecting those Jacobites who chose to remain in Ireland. They also outlined how Catholics would be treated in an Ireland ruled by a Protestant monarch.

Under the military articles, members of the Jacobite army could leave Ireland for France, along with their wives and children. Many chose to do so, and this departure became known as the Flight of the Wild Geese. Jacobite soldiers could also join the Williamite army, which some chose to do.
